8.8.1 Does the entity expect that it will continue to have the current level of net operating cash flows for the time being and, if not, why not?
 Answer: No. The Company undertakes exploration in Alaska, USA and in the Gulf Country of the Northern Territory (NT). Exploration at the 64North project in Alaska is impacted by the Northern Hemisphere winter and at the Wollogorang project (at the same time) in the NT by the north Australian wet season. In both areas, projects are impacted by weather conditions and exploration activities are significantly reduced in the first quarter of 2021.

8.8.2 Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful?

Answer: The Company has demonstrated track record of successfully raising cash since listing on the ASX via share placements, share purchase plans and a rights issues to fund its operations. The Company has a corporate advisory joint-lead manager mandate in place with two significant brokering houses which have successfully supported the Company in significant prior capital raises. It is expected that the Company will undertake future capital raising activity, which it expects will be successful in meeting its cash requirements in time for the field season(s).

8.8.3 Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?

Answer: The Company expects to continue its operations and meet its business objectives via capital raising. In the event that Resolution Minerals is required to raise further funds, activities will be tailored to ensure sufficient funds are available in the short term to meet its obligations.

Note: where item 8.7 is less than 2 quarters, all of questions 8.8.1, 8.8.2 and 8.8.3 above must be answered.

Notes

1. This quarterly cash flow report and the accompanying activity report provide a basis for informing the market about the entity's activities for the past quarter, how they have been financed and the effect this has had on its cash position. An entity that wishes to disclose additional information over and above the minimum required under the Listing Rules is encouraged to do so.
2. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, the definitions in, and provisions of, AASB 6: Exploration for and Evaluation of Mineral Resources and AASB 107: Statement of Cash Flows apply to this report. If this quarterly cash flow report has been prepared in accordance with other accounting standards agreed by ASX pursuant to Listing Rule 19.11A, the corresponding equivalent standards apply to this report.
3. Dividends received may be classified either as cash flows from operating activities or cash flows from investing activities, depending on the accounting policy of the entity.
4. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors, you can insert here: "By the board". If it has been authorised for release to the market by a committee of your board of directors, you can insert here: "By the [name of board committee – eg Audit and Risk Committee]". If it has been authorised for release to the market by a disclosure committee, you can insert here: "By the Disclosure Committee".
5. If this report has been authorised for release to the market by your board of directors and you wish to hold yourself out as complying with recommendation 4.2 of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, the board should have received a declaration from its CEO and CFO that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained, that this report complies with the appropriate accounting standards and gives a true and fair view of the cash flows of the entity, and that their opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.
